NORTHWOLIST LIPSANT

THIS PRODUCTION IS DEDICATED TO

MRS. DIANE SCULLY AND MRS. DIANE MARTIN

We, the class of 1983, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Diane Scully and Mrs. Diane Martin. In the two years they have been with our class they have turned us around and made us whole. With their dedication, our candy, cookbook, and poster sales have been great successes, not to mention the help that made the Prom, Class Picnic, and Spaghetti Supper special memories for us all. In the time they have spent with our class they have given more than advice, they have become special friends to our class, and this dedication is one small way to show our thanks.

THE CLASS HISTORY

Characters: Class of 1983

Setting: A small New England high school

Synopsis: We follow a class of students through four years of high school. We open in September 1979...

Props: Pencils, pens, notebook, sports equipment, purple and white decorations.

Scene I — The cafeteria is filled with nervous Freshmen as they locate their homerooms, nervously searching for faces they know in the halls. Time passes and the year fills with activities. Seniors welcome the Freshmen at the first dance of the year, and a spaghetti supper for the town meeting presided over by President — Lisa Murphy; Vice-President — Ann Mcdade; Secretary — Linda Houghton; and Treasurer — Anne Schleicher becomes the first fund-raiser. The year closes as the Freshmen say good bye to the Seniors by sponsoring a farewell dance.

Scene II — (September, 1980) The school becomes familiar to the Sophomores and the new class officers President — Dan Goldman; Vice-President — Maria Santos; Secretary — Maria Scudere; and Treasurer — Anne Schleicher start the year off with a poster sale to boost the class treasury. Next, rings are ordered with the motto "Free to be in '83." The first annual chocolate Easter bunny sale raises the treasury to $3,392.

Scene III — (September 1981) Class officers President — Dan Goldman; Vice-President — Lynn Juutilainen; Secretary — Sandy Keene; and Treasurer — Anne Schleicher begin preparations for the prom. A place must be chosen, menus music, decorations — the decisions are endless. Committees are chosen and move into action. Meanwhile the rings finally arrive and there are cookbook sales, poster sales and more chocolate bunnies. Then on April 16, 1982 the evening is spent dancing the night away at the Canoe Club ballroom to the sounds of Baby Grand. The theme is "Precious and Few" and the evening is a great success. The year closes as the search for colleges, jobs and military careers begins after the realization that there is life after high school.

Scene IV — (September 1982) An aura of excitement fills the year. It is the Seniors' duty to welcome the Freshmen with a dance that pulls in over 250 people. Spirit week arrives and the hall decorating contest brings posters, stars, and Senior spirit together for a first place win! At the homecoming game Queen Lynn Juutilainen with the court — Cindy Sousa, Kathy Blithe, Anne Schleicher and Kim Gustufson watch the festivities from a chauffeur driven convertible.

The rest of the fall is filled with the Senior class spaghetti supper and candy and trivet sales for Christmas. Spring brings the prom. And class officers President — Dan Goldman, Vice-President — Lynn Juutilainen, Secretary — Maria Scudere, and Treasurer — Anne Schleicher begin to plan for the Senior class play, the class trip, the Senior breakfast, class night and finally on June 2, 1983, the graduation of the class of 1983!

In Memoriam Marc A. Andrews 1965-1983

On the morning of January 7, 1983, Norton High School students were shocked and saddened by the news that Marc Andrews, one of our classmates, had died in a tragic automobile accident on the previous night. In his four years at Norton High School, Marc, fondly called "Mork," had brought laughter and joy to the lives of all of us. As one of our classmates, he enriched the lives of all of us who knew him.

Following are lines written by two of Marc's classmates as we reflect upon his tragic death and look back fondly on our memories of Marc.

We all loved Marc as a friend
And death does not bring the friendship to an end.
When we hear something funny we look for Marc,
For laughter and fooling were the special gifts he left with us.
Chris Askew

We miss you "Mork," but you left us love and laughter to carry on.

We'll never forget you, Marc, as a special part of you lies within us all.

The Future Is Near

by Janet Foster

We walked in the door,
Clustered as one,
So sure that carefree days were gone —
No long lunches, no periods of play —
We were sentenced for a four-year stay.

We went about finding our classes — Lost little Freshmen looking for passes. After awhile we settled down, And then we saw upperclassmen around

Next came the ghastly Sophomore slump— Our grades low, our spirits needing a jump. The Juniors planned for the big prom dance— We wanted to go, but there was no chance.

Next year was magical!

All in a daze,

Trying to sort through that college maze.

Rallies, a prom, games, we did it all—

Boyfriends, dates, parties, we had a ball.

Our Senior year hurried by so fast, The memories of friends sure to last We feel we are set, for we have a plan: The girl is grown, the boy is a man.

I stand tonight a tear in my eye.
It is so hard to say goodbye.
The future is near, the past is gone.
We straighten our backs and march bravely on.

Precious and Few

On April 16, 1982 the class of '83 held the annual prom at the Canoe Club in W. Bridgewater, The band, Baby Grand, played the theme "Precious and Few" as Queen Denise Costa, the Senior and Junior Courts and their escorts danced the night away. The Senior Court included: Helen Mackesy, Stacia Korey, and Monica Jerome. Junior Court: Janet Foster, Daina Berzins, Joyce Eddy, Cindy Sousa, and Lynn Juutilainenn. The prom was a great success and an evening to be remembered.

Senior Class Picnic

Despite foul weather the senior class managed to make a great day of their picnic. The hamburgers and hotdogs disappeared before the trays hit the table. Outside activities were moved into the gym where a very spirited game of football was going on. This senior event started the year off with a note of enthusiasm.

Home Coming 1982

Despite our loss to West Bridgewater, we enjoyed our homecoming game and the dance afterwards. The homecoming queen was Lynn Juutilainen. Her court included Seniors Kathy Blithe, Kim Gustafson, Anne Schleicher, and Cindy Sousa; juniors Lesleyann Laidlaw and Ines Rutkovskis; Sophomore Michele Dermody and Sandy Ferrini; and Freshmen Karen Eno and Mia Sicard.

Spaghetti Supper

The Spaghetti Supper was a great success with the seniors serving over 500 people. All the food for the supper was donated, and parents of the seniors made the delicious meatballs. It was one of our big events of the year, and we netted eight hundred dollars.

Christmas Concert

The Mad Hatter's Tea Party

After reading Alice in Wonderland, seniors recreated the Mad Hatter's Tea Party. We played musical chairs, pin the tail on the donkey, and had a Caucus Race, with Mary Gallagher as Alice, Jay Leca as the Mad Hatter, Theresa Proulx as the March Hare, and Joe Jeannotte as the Dormouse.

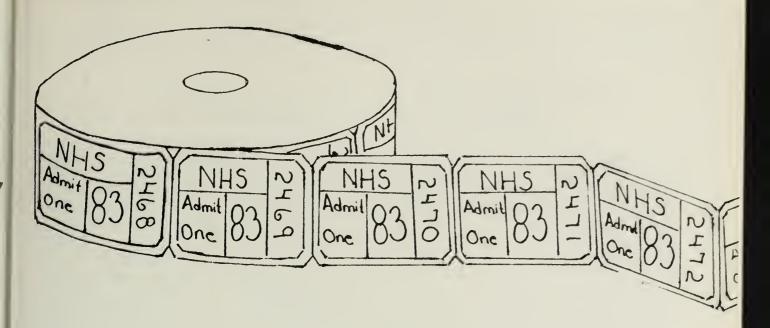

Foreign Stars

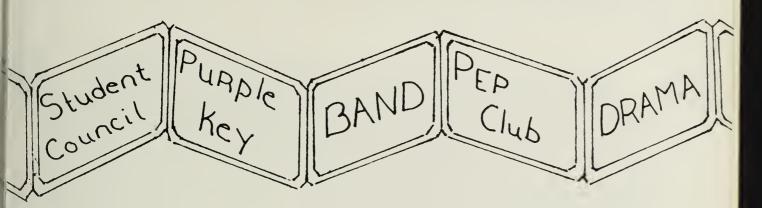

This year Norton High has had the privilege of hosting six exchange students. Half of the girls were from Scandinavia, while the others were from Germany, Israel, and France. Through their involvement in all facets of school life, these students have added an extra-special atmosphere to our senior year.

5-5

The Norton Football team entered this season with hopes of their second consecutive Mayflower League title but lost a few tough games and settled for second place with a 5-3 mark in the league. Steve Bryant, Dave Meyers, and Chris Sinos made the All Star team while the rest of the Lancers did a fine job. With a strong team coming back next year, the season ended with the Lancers and their fans looking forward to a League Championship next year.
